

Treatment Urgency

Percent of Children with Treatment Urgencies 1 and 2 from OHNA

SC Oral Health Needs Assessment 2002/2007 Stories

- Children enrolled in Medicaid are experiencing higher rates of caries, but were the most connected to care
- There are no disparities between black and white children for sealant use
- Sealant use has increased while untreated caries and treatment urgency decreased